As the District Technology Director for our school, I have seen the ever increasing demand for Technology over the past 12 years. E-rate funding is essential to our survival in this demand, but there is not enough available to continue our development of a much needed wireless system in the district. We can sustain, but we can't grow!